

Three Little Pigs

There were three little pigs named Sonu, Monu, and Gonu. Sonu made a house of straws where he used to live. Monu made a house of sticks. He used to live there. Gonu built a house of red bricks, which was very strong. One fine day, a giant bad wolf came to Sonu's house and said, "I will huff and puff and blow your house". So finally, he huffed and puffed and blew the house. After which, Sonu ran to Monu's house, but the dire wolf followed Sonu, and he then went to Monu's house and repeated the same. He blew the Monu house also.

The two of them, Sonu and Monu, went to Goku's house. The big bad wolf followed them. He said, "I will huff and puff and blow your house". Then he huffed and puffed. But unfortunately, he could not blow up Goku's house. The wolf sadly went away, which led to Sonu, Monu, and Sonu happily staying in the brick house.

Moral of the Story

The student will learn the importance of kindness. This story will teach them to help others in need. The story also teaches the importance of friendship. One should always understand the importance of friendship and help them when they need us.